THE SIERRA CLUB: MARTHA KLEIN

Chapter Chair of the State of Connecticut Chapter of the Sierra Club

Ms. Klein will discuss Energy Strategy for the State of Connecticut, The Need to Transition to Renewable Energy, and Legislative Opportunities in our State.

Sunday, April 29, 2018

1:00 pm

Gunn Memorial Library, Washington Green

Martha Klein is Chapter Chair of the Connecticut Chapter of the Sierra Club. She also serves as Communications Chair, and lead volunteer on two conservation campaigns: Save Remington Woods, and Beyond Gas. Martha is secretary of her town's Conservation Commission. She works part time as a nurse doing private duty home care. In her very minimal free time, she skis, hikes, reads, listens to live music, and takes dance classes.
